EPITHEMATA.

POULTICES.

CATAPLASMA CUMINI.

CUMIN POULTICE.

TAKE of cumin ſeed one pound,
laurel berries,
the leaves of ſcordium dried,
Virginian ſnake-root, of each, w. three ounces,
cloves, w. one ounce.

Rub all of them together, and add three times the weight of honey ſo as to make a poultice.

CATAPLASMA SINAPEOS.

MUSTARD POULTICE.

Take muſtard ſeed powdered,

crumb of bread, of each half a pound,

vinegar a ſufficient quantity to form a poultice.

Mix them together.

COAGULUM ALUMINIS.

ALUM POULTICE.

Take the whites of two eggs.

Rub them with a piece of alum until they are coagulated.

THE END OF THE DISPENSATORY.

TABLE